

HUNTLEY COURSE: PRINCIPLES OF FILM ARCHIVING

Last Few Places !

Two Day Course Monday 5th and Tuesday 6th March 2012

The course will combine a very hands-on and practical approach but we will also cover the theory and philosophy behind the art of film archiving.

Held at a working film archive, this course will give you real skills that you can apply to a career. The course also provides excellent worksheets.

(Accommodation for the Sunday night prior to the Course and the Tuesday night following the course is an Optional at extra cost and which includes evening meal)

For more information, a full timetable and application form please contact:

caroline@huntleyarchives.com or Telephone 01981 241 580