

GAUMONT PATHE ARCHIVES

Newsletter #3

May 2011

The Gérard Bar David's "rock collection"

Gérard Bar-David, an internationally renowned rock journalist has gathered comprehensive collection of interviews and live sessions of the most famous artists and groups of the 80's and the 90's : Stevie Wonder, Texas, Eurythmics, Simple Minds, ... full list upon demand. This amazing "rock collection" is now available in exclusivity through Gaumont Pathé archives.

Stevie Wonder - 1985 - collection Gérard Bar David

Gaumont Pathé Archives in partnership with the Sunny Side of the Doc 2011

Gaumont Pathé Archives has been supporting the organization of the Sunny Side of the Doc for 5 years now. We will confirm our support to this event dedicated to the international documentary production which next issue will be held on 21-24 June in La Rochelle (France). Producers looking for archive footage or "how to" information for their projects are welcome at our booth C 29.

Weddings of the century

2011 is the year of royal and princely weddings. Two out of the best matches of the European aristocracy, HRH Prince William of Wales and HRH Prince Albert of Monaco, will get married this spring and summer. Gaumont and Pathé newsreels as well as Sygma TV and NBC News Archives collections offer numerous films to illustrate the happy but also the tragic moments of these illustrious families.

HRH Prince Albert of Monaco - 1983 - collection Sygma

Available online at www.gaumontpathearchives.com, our English/French database offers screening facilities. Just ask for a free access code and enjoy thousands of digitized clips.