WELCOME TO SPRING!

Its been a very busy start to the year here at Historic Films. As we continue to post new material on-line every day and dig deeper into our archival vaults we are re-discovering some fabulous performances in some great collections that we would love to share with you.

Over the next few months we will be showcasing different collections in our Newsletter that Historic Films has owned or represented throughout our 20 year history... Stay tuned and we hope you enjoy!

What's NEW in the Archive

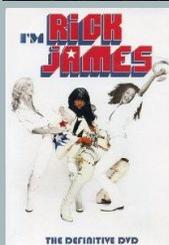

The Campbell Collection Rare Color Home Movies Of The Warsaw 'Jewish Ghetto' 1938

Filmed in 1938 by Dr. William C. Campbell (a professor of Education at the University of Southern California), this footage is perhaps the only surviving color film of the Warsaw "Jewish Ghetto" during the Nazi occupation of Poland. Other footage in this remarkable collection, all in original Kodachromecolor, depicts Nazi Germany as it mobilizes for war.

Shots of "Hitler Youth" on the streets of Berlin as well as some remarkable footage of Italy during the short lived Hitler/Mussolini alliance.

Warsaw Poland 1938

The collection,also includes rare color footage of 1930's Mexico, Russian, Central America and Argentina.
