WINTER IS HERE!

Winter is upon us! As we continue to acquire new material every month our staff is busy working to bring these collections online for your next research project.

Please visit us on FACEBOOK to see what's new and keep up to date on all things Historic! If you have a request for something you would like to see that is funny, odd or just plain hard-to-find, please let us know ..we'd be happy to post!

In the coming months we will continue to showcase many of the collections that Historic Films is proud to own or exclusively represent throughout our 20 year history... Stay tuned and we hope you enjoy!

What's NEW in the Archive

SOUL STREET!

Soul Street
(Click to PLAY)

The success of Don Cornelius' African American dance party show Soul

Train spawned several local imitators. Washington D.C.'s Ebony Affair (1971-1973) was one and Cincinnati had its own; Soul Street!. Hosted by Kenny Smith, Soul Street! survived two seasons and presented performances and interviews with African American artists such as James Brown, Gladys Knight & the Pips, Bill Doggett, Carla Thomas, Roberta Flack, The Stylistics, Millie Jackson and many others. Historic Films is proud to offer licensing from this important musical program and has recently restored all of the surviving episodes.

What's NEW in Production

HOOTENANNY!

Marion Williams performs "Packin' Up"
(Click to PLAY)

Historic Films Joe Lauro has directed a one hour WNET program featuring the great artists of the 1960s folk music revival. Rare performances by Judy Collins, Johnny Cash, Theodore Bikel, The New Christy Minstrels, Marion Williams and the Stars of Faith and many others all pulled from the surviving kinescopes of the legendary Hootenanny! television program (1962-1964). These performances will be featured in this one hour pledge special for WNET which will air on selected PBS stations.

What's OLD (But Good) in the Archive

Our Seasonal Showcase of Historic Films Collections, hand-picked by our researchers...

SOUNDSTAGE (1974- 1985)

Historic Films has recently renewed its agreement with Chicago's WTTW to offer clip licensing on the legendary live music series Soundstage. Dynamic performances by legendary artists such as Aretha Franklin, Bob Dylan, Jim Croce, B.B. King, Harry Chapin, Muddy Waters, The Bee Gees, Bonnie and many others, from over 135 shows, have been digitized and are now available for licensing.
