THE SPL ARCHIVE

The Scottish Premier League (SPL) is the top flight of Scottish football. Established in 1998, the League is made up of 12 teams. The top and bottom six teams are split into two mini leagues after 33 games, playing a total of five more fixtures to take their overall total to 38. Celtic and Rangers are tied as the most successful teams, with six titles apiece.

The Scottish Premier League has featured some of the world's best players, including Henrik Larsson, Giovanni van Bronckhorst, Ian Wright, Fabrizio Ravanelli, Mark Viduka, Ronald and Frank de Boer, Mikel Arteta and Juninho. Dick Advocaat, Gordon Strachan, Terry Butcher, Martin O'Neill and Alex McLeish have all managed SPL sides.
