

Hello and welcome to the first newsletter from Zodiak Clips!

Zodiak Clips is born

Having launched at the beginning of 2013 it's been a very busy first 12 months for us. As you may know Zodiak does enjoy a good party so what better reason to have not one but two launch parties, in London in May and in November in Manchester! It was great to see so many people at both events so a big 'thank you' goes out to everyone who came along and we must say 'congratulations' to Dennis Karam (Zig Zag) and Tim Hill (MUTV) who were the winners of our business card champagne drop!

Road trippin'

We've been on quite a whirlwind road trip attending many of the content markets including; the world's largest entertainment market – MIPCOM in glamorous Cannes, Footage Marketplace held at BAFTA in London and in New York, and Sheffield Doc Festival. These were all hugely beneficial in terms of getting our name out there and meeting with many varied clients face to face.

Zodiak across the pond

September saw the opening of our US office in Los Angeles. Dominic Dare joined the division as Sales Manager and is responsible for developing Zodiak's footage business in North and South America, Japan and Australasia.

Cath's Corner

We had a huge response internationally from potential partners since our launch earlier this year. As a result of a very hectic MIPCOM we're delighted to be able to welcome aboard new partners STUDIO CANAL and FINITE FUNNIES. There are lots more exciting things in the pipeline including a great new collection of iconic rock interviews and fantastic new blooper and home movie footage... more on this soon. I'll be keeping you updated with new acquisitions so watch this space!

We're always keen to hear from any unique footage holders – so do get in touch!

That's all for now folks!

We'll be in touch again with an update in the spring. Don't forget – if you need any research then we're happy to assist.

Merry Christmas from Zodiak Clips
